

Total No. of Pages: 1

Register Number:

7229

Name of the Candidate:

P.G. DIPLOMA EXAMINATION - 2010
(POPULATION AND HEALTH MANAGEMENT)

(PAPER – IV)

140. HEALTH MANAGEMENT

December)
Hours

(Time: 3

Maximum: 100 Marks

Answer any FIVE questions.
All questions carry equal marks. (5 × 20 = 100)

1. Describe the importance and procedure of input-output analysis model systems analysis and network analysis in health management.
2. Critically examine the role of in-service training, motivation and incentives / disincentives for human resource development.
3. Explain the direct, indirect and opportunity costs in health finance management.
4. Describe the budget planning, programme planning and budgeting services in health finance management.
5. Describe the methods of cost-benefit and cost-effective analysis in evaluation of health.
6. Discuss the importance of stock verification, inflow-outflow, accounting and purchase & stocking of health materials management.
7. Discuss the type of institutional records and programme records maintained for the documentation of health information. Mention the nature of data and problems.
8. Explain how and type of adhoc surveys and health surveys are useful for collecting health information in Indian context.
9. Discuss how channels of authority and communication, co-ordination and leadership qualities of a health administrator would improve the health administration?
10. Explain any THREE of the following:
  - a) Cost Accounting
  - b) Opportunity Costs
  - c) Role of Computer in Documentation of Health Information

d) Health Administrator's Interaction within and outside agencies

%%%%%%%%