

August 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

The performing arts have been my passion for as long as I can remember. I love performing because I love being in front of people, and being in the spotlight. Every single moment of performing is so exciting for me, and I know it will be a part of my life forever.

I have been acting for about seven years, and it is such an excellent experience. Acting really excites me because I get to meet new people and learn and experience so much. I love being able to 'walk in somebody else's shoes' while portraying a whole different character than myself. I love being able to be in a whole different world, and having the ability to actually be my character.

I would like to apply to Lyric Acting School because I am eager for more acting/performing opportunities, and therefore I need to become a better actress. To pursue my career even further, I need to take my acting skills to a higher level.

Sincerely,
Taylor-Anne Reid
13 years old