Bad Boy or Good Boy

There once was a boy named Jordan Tabb. He was the worst kid ever. He would beat you up on a regular basis for your lunch money. "Ouch!!!" said a boy on the playground. Yep that's right. But one day that changed. There was a girl named Nia Johnson. She was the nicest girl ever. She would stay after school often and help the science teacher clean the room and she was a good student. After watching how Nia behaved Jordan realized that he too, was a nice person. He tried to be nice to people and he became friends with a boy that was not happy. So he apologized to the people that he had hurt and everything was okay.
