

MAY 2011

P/ID 17906/PMSF

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1. What is meant by community Health?
2. Define 'Medical sociology'.
3. What do you mean by vital statistics?
4. What is ecology of health?
5. Mention any two systems of medical beliefs.
6. Explain curative medicine.
7. Define Magic.
8. What is medical awareness?
9. What is meant by specialization?
10. What do you mean by primary health care?

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) Define social medicine and bring out its scope.

Or

(b) Explain the relationship of medicine with other social institutions.

12. (a) Bring out the components of epidemiology.

Or

(b) Explain the social sources of illness.

13. (a) What are the characteristics of primitive medicine?

Or

(b) Describe the theories of primitive medicine.

14. (a) Bring out the various systems of medical practices.

Or

(b) Explain the importance of rehabilitation and bring out its types.

2 P/ID 17906/PMSF

15. (a) Describe the evolution of hospital as a health institution.

Or

- (b) Explain how social change is brought by the physicians.

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Discuss the functions and dysfunctions of community and examine the importance of community participation in health programmes.

Or

- (b) Give an account of the evolution of social medicine in India.

17. (a) Analyse the various sources of vital and health statistics and examine their uses.

Or

- (b) Describe how social etiology of diseases helps in the prevention of illness.

18. (a) Examine the salient features of modern medicine by comparing it with primitive and folk medicine.

Or

- (b) Discuss the nature of folk medicine and explain it with suitable examples.

19. (a) Bring out the attitudes and beliefs associated with diseases and explain them in detail.

Or

- (b) Discuss how both preventive and curative medicine promote health status of a society.

20. (a) Explain how hospital functions as a community institution.

Or

- (b) Write an essay on community Health in India.
-