

MAY 2013

P/ID 4426/PGJG

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

SECTION A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer any EIGHT questions not exceeding
50 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

1. Define natural resources.
2. What is rain water harvesting?
3. Define watershed?
4. List the sources of conventional energy.
5. What is crop diversification?
6. State any four uses of forest.
7. Define industrial Geography.
8. What are the modes of transport?
9. How the lands is classified by NRSC at first level?
10. Name any five uses of Western Ghats.

SECTION B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions not exceeding 250 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

11. (a) Classify resources with illustration.

Or

(b) Why conservation of resources assume importance?

12. (a) Write a note on different types of forest.

Or

(b) Establish the interdependence of tribal people and forest.

13. (a) Explain briefly about strategy to be adopted to conserve wild life.

Or

(b) Write a short note on Bauxite ore.

14. (a) List the metallic of energy.

Or

(b) List the sources of energy.

15. (a) What are the physical factors that influence cultivation?

Or

- (b) Write are the problems of cotton textile industry.

SECTION C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions not exceeding 500 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

16. (a) Explain the characteristics of Indian agriculture.

Or

- (b) How the soil is eroded and how will you conserve it?

17. (a) How will you improve the status of forest resources in India?

Or

- (b) Explain how the abuse of wildlife depletes it.

18. (a) Discuss the status of power generation in India.

Or

- (b) Describe the ways and means of reducing the dependency of mineral resources.

19. (a) Write in detail about achievements and problems of First Green revolution.

Or

- (b) Explain about the advantages and problems of road transport.

20. (a) What are the factors deciding economic activities?

Or

- (b) Explain Weber's approach to industrial location.
-