

MAY 2012

P/ID 77569/PMBH1

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer any FIVE questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

1. Briefly provide the population trends in India after Independence.
2. What are the outcomes of National Pulse Polio Programme?
3. Provide the health care in tertiary level.
4. How does economic conditions affect health system? Give examples.
5. “Prevention is better than cure” – Justify the statement on history of diseases.
6. What are the voluntary health services provided by India Red cross Society?
7. What are the features of super speciality hospitals established by central government?
8. Explain the health problems arised due to life style of information technology professionals.

PART B — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer any FIVE questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

9. Discuss the demographic structure and health implications in India.
10. Write the need, objectives, importance and features of national health policy.
11. Elucidate the different structures of hospital system in India.
12. Give your idea on various determinants of health.
13. Analyse the natural history and changing pattern of diseases.
14. Mention the role of following voluntary health agencies.
 - (a) Rock feller Foundation.
 - (b) Ford Foundation.
 - (c) CARE.
15. Examine the plan outlays for health planning under various five year plans.
16. Elaborately describe the programmes implemented for AIDS prevention and control in India.

PART C — (1 × 20 = 20 marks)

(Compulsory)

17. Indian medical system is changing to multi speciality and super speciality hospitals in recent years. Both government and private investments are increased to provide quality health care. But it is debated that the speciality health care system is costly and not reachable to rural and poor population. What is your argument in this case? Would you provide the pros and cons of speciality health care system? How could we make effective of speciality health care system to reach common people?
-