

Hope

Hope: What do you guys hope for? I hope that the Dodgers win.

I hope I do okay on the finals. I hope the teacher doesn't catch me.
You may hope in a lot of things, I know I do, but God says to hope in Him. Everything you go through, weather good or bad, you should put your hope in God. He will see you through.

The bible mentions the word HOPE about 159 times. So I think He was trying to get something across to us. And that's to just hope in the Lord!

Even Now as we talk about the end times and the beast and the anti-christ. This shows that we need to have hope as others may take the mark or submit to satan.

This stuff that Pastor Matt is telling us the Battle of Armageddon, 1000 years, final reign, It's pretty confusing, at least to me. God's not telling us to memorize weather it's gonna happen in 7 years or a millennium. You really don't need to know exactly what's going to happen. Just believe, have faith, Hope in God through the times where most people will lose this hope.

I guess what I'm trying to say is just to have HOPE. Daily I hope for little unimportant things or Even major stuff. The name of our church is New Hope. That we have a New Hope in Christ. As compared to an old hope. Did we ever have an old hope? So anyways just hope in God in every thing and He'll see you through it.
