

MAY 2015

P/ID 28704/PCYD

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 50 words.

1. Development.
2. Fetal Alcohol Syndrome
3. Emotional Self Regulation.
4. Autonomous Morality.
5. Relativistic Thinking.
6. Genes.
7. Life Structure
8. Centration.
9. Euthanasia.
10. Anorexia Nervosa.

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 250 words.

11. (a) Discuss various major stages of human lifespan development.

Or

- (b) Write a short note on the information processing perspective of development.

12. (a) Explain in detail the zone of proximal development.

Or

- (b) Discuss various things that parents do that can be harmful to the fetus.

13. (a) Describe the changes that occurs in self-concept and self-esteem in adolescence.

Or

- (b) Discuss the psychological impact of puberty.

14. (a) Explain the psychological impact of attending college and discuss the leading cause of dropping out.

Or

- (b) Write a detailed note on various attachment patterns.

15. (a) Outline Erikson theory on Personality change in late adulthood.

Or

- (b) Discuss the changes that occur in self-concept and personality in middle adulthood.

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 500 words.

16. (a) Enumerate the common methods used in the study of development.

Or

- (b) Discuss various prenatal stages of development.

17. (a) Explain various health and social issues faced by adolescence.

Or

- (b) Explain Piaget, theory on cognitive development during adolescence period.

18. (a) Explain the changes that occur in the thought structure of young adulthood.

Or

- (b) Write a note on the various health issues faced by young adults and ways in which they can prevent it.

19. (a) Discuss the diversity of adult lifestyle focusing on separation, singlehood and cohabitation.

Or

- (b) Describe the changes in social relationship in late adulthood.

20. (a) Write a detailed note on the factors promoting the Psychological wellbeing in midlife.

Or

- (b) Discuss about the Psychological and biological problems associated with midlife.
-