

DRAFT

HRDC Agri-Food Research Operational Definitions

For the purpose of this study:

The term “Organic” will represent farm produce and processed food that is organically certified or in transition to organic certification.

The term “Specialty” will represent food that is grown and processed locally for local consumption.