

OCTOBER 2013

P/ID 4425/PGJF

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

SECTION A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions not exceeding 50 words each.

Write short notes on the following :

1. Questionnaire
2. Non-ecumene
3. Infant mortality
4. Immigration
5. Positive checks
6. Situation
7. CBD
8. Decibel
9. Trickle down effect
10. Urban renewal

SECTION B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions not exceeding 200 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

11. (a) Explain the problems relating to reliability and comparability of data

Or

(b) Narrate salient features of the current Indian population policy.

12. (a) Explain the concept of demographic transition.

Or

(b) Give the consequences of migration.

13. (a) Bring out the salient features of Optimum Population theory.

Or

(b) Classify rural settlements.

14. (a) Write a note on the Harris Classification.

Or

(b) Explain the problem of solid waste management in cities.

15. (a) Comment on the theory of August Losch 's market centers.

Or

(b) Give an account on the transport problem of villages in India.

SECTION C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions not exceeding 500 words each.

16. (a) Explain the recent trends in Population Studies.

Or

- (b) Write an account on the distribution of world population.

17. (a) Give an account on demographic determinants.

Or

- (b) Describe the pattern of recent world migrations.

18. (a) Give an account on the Malthus Population Theory.

Or

- (b) Explain the factors affecting the distribution of rural settlements.

19. (a) Write an essay on the ecological process of urban growth.

Or

- (b) Enumerate the problems of urban areas in India.

20. (a) Describe the Von Thunen's model.

Or

(b) Give an account on the pattern of urbanization in India.

---