

OCTOBER 2011

P/ID 5957/MSG

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Answer any FIVE questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

1. What is Historical Research? Describe the elements of Historical Research.
2. What is a hypothesis? What are the type and qualities of a good hypothesis?
3. Explain the types of research with suitable examples.
4. Explain the techniques of technical report writing.
5. What is sampling? Discuss the various types of sampling with suitable examples.
6. Explain the role of observation method in social science research.
7. Write about the use of measure of central tendency and distendency in social science researches.
8. What re the advantages and disadvantages of questionnaire method of data collection.

9. Write short notes on any THREE of the following:
- (a) Experimental research
 - (b) Interview method
 - (c) Bar diagram
 - (d) Documentary sources
 - (e) Style manuals
 - (f) Case study.
-