

Romeo and Juliet

Love and Hate In Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare wrote the story of two lover's Romeo and Juliet. The love of Romeo and Juliet was a great and unforgettable love. The two cross star lovers had shared their love and hate to each other.

The families had to have love and hate or story would have been so good. The fight of Merutio and Tybalt was an act of hate between the two societies. In that sence Romeo had to show his hate by killing Tybalt. Romeo just got marry and now kills the wife's cousin that was an act of real hate. The fact about this part was that hate over ruled the love of Romeo to its family. The love of them had the great effect on them. The fact is that hate was more powerful in a way that it beat love. After that what did Juliet think about Romeo, the killer of her cousin, she did not realy care about it. But she only care about was Romeo did not get kill for the murder. Love over power the hate this time. But can love over power the hate of two families? Many time in the story the love over turns and sometimes it the other way around. Both of the family went mad when one of the family member got killed.

The hate between them all started with the parents. Being in the book of Romeo and Juliet the two families the started fight cause of one the family made a joke about the other family and it started a huge fight between the two families. Even the servant help the fight that must have been a fight. If the servants even fought them, the family must have been in hate. If the servant would fight for their master then the two families really must have some historic hate between the families. The fact is that their kinsmen wanted to see each other dead. The hate of each other was not more powerful then the love between them. The two love birds can actually love in this society of Verona. The lovers would even died for each other, they thought live is nothing without each others. The Romance that they had no one can ever image if it was not for Shakespeare. The fate bought them to death and the everlasting love. The powerful love of them actually over throw the hate between the families. After thee death of Romeo and Juliet the families planed to built a statue. Love can make hate turn into love.

Both the love and hate can both resolve into a problem. The love ended with the death of Romeo and Juliet. The problem of that was that the families did not called peace yet. They could not live in a harmony world. The hate brought more problem then love did. The problem was that the hate spilt the lovers in half, when Romeo was banished. That was a lot of problem and plus the parent made the marriage closer so Juliet would not be sad the thoughtful mind of the parents. Many other problems was made my hate like how Romeo got the problem of the banishment from Verona. Both of them worked together to bring forth the tombs of the two.

The love over throw the hate many times. But this story here is a learn about what hate and love can do. The both love and hate of Romeo and Juliet brought two hateful families together into a normal neighbors
