

DECEMBER 2014

P/ID 28709/PCYJ

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1. Define Counselling.
2. Who are Gifted Students?
3. What is Scholastic backwardness?
4. What is psychological assessment?
5. What is Assertiveness Training?
6. What are Problem Solving Techniques?
7. What is Programmed learning?
8. Why is it important to keep student records?
9. What are behaviour modification techniques?
10. What are ethics?

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) Describe the role of the student advisor and teacher in school counselling.

Or

- (b) Enumerate the challenges facing school counselling in the 21st century?

12. (a) Design a guidance plan for underachievers.

Or

- (b) What are the functions of an Educational psychologist?

13. (a) Elucidate the advantages of counselling parents and teachers.

Or

- (b) Describe the methods of counselling adolescents regarding sexuality.

14. (a) Compare and contrast the assessment and appraisal process for Individuals and groups.

Or

- (b) Explain how diagnostic assessment is an essential part of school psychology

15. (a) What techniques can be used to help the student to overcome exam anxiety.

Or

- (b) Provide time management strategies for adolescents.

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Enumerate the requisites of a good guidance programme in schools.

Or

- (b) Describe the activities of a school guidance programme.

17. (a) Describe remedies for procrastination.

Or

- (b) Delineate how decision making techniques guide a student in academic life.

18. (a) Describe the nature and history of guidance and counselling.

Or

- (b) Explain how needs of guidance and counselling can vary in different schools.

19. (a) Elaborate on the common childhood problems related to school.

Or

- (b) Describe the ethical responsibilities in the assessment process.

20. (a) Explain the status of school counselling in 21st century.

Or

- (b) Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of sex education.
-